Welcome

Brian and I would like to take this opportunity to welcome you to Standcliffe Hall. Since first seeing our home in 2002 it has been our dream to share our 'beloved Standcliffe' with others.

Our journey has been a long one, the renovations sometimes painstaking, sometimes heartbreaking; but now at last we can look back and bask in its beauty. Standcliffe Hall is the most magnificent house set in beautiful parkland.

By drawing on our own business experiences we believe we have created the most unique environment for all types of corporate events.

Share the experience!

A close-up photograph of a champagne bottle chilling in a silver bucket. The bottle's foil is gold and has 'CHAMPAGNE' printed vertically. A small white label on the neck features a red crest and the text 'ETIENNE DUMONT'. The bucket is highly reflective, showing distorted reflections of the bottle and the surrounding environment. The background is a soft-focus purple and red.

"Quite simply Stancliffe Hall is everything a venue should be and so much more".
